

Biography

Gabriele König was born in Uzbekistan. From 1964 to 1975 she attended the N. A. Rimski Korsakov School for highly gifted children in St. Petersburg where she received an intensive musical education.

From 1975 to 1980 she studied at the State Conservatory "Rimski Korsakov" in St. Petersburg where she graduated with honours and gained the further qualification as a Concert Pianist.

Since 1989 she has been living and teaching in St. Georgen, Germany, where she organises the Regional Badener Étude Competition, the International Glière Competition and the International Johann Baptiste Cramer Piano Competition. Her artistic activity is not only confined to concerts in Germany but also takes her to many other European countries.
